

Searching for the Common Good

Philosophical, Theological and Economic Approaches

hg. von Mathias Nebel, Thierry Collaud

- Gemeinwohl als Grammatik des öffentlichen Raums
- Vielfältige Untersuchungsperspektiven

The common good was declared a dead topic in the seventies, toxic to politics and treacherously totalitarian towards minorities. But since the beginning of the 21st century, it has been alive and thriving. We need to recover a sense of what we want to be and achieve together in order to give answers to the questions that justice, rights and tolerance can't address.

With contributions by: Mathias Nebel, Thierry Collaud, Jean Michel Bonvin, Paul Dembinski, Jean Claude Huot, Matthew Kempshall, Mary Keys, Christos N. Tsironis and Stefano Zamagni.

in Koproduktion mit Nomos Verlagsgesellschaft

Pano Verlag
Religion – Wirtschaft – Politik, Band 19
2018, 232 Seiten, 15.3 x 22.7 cm, Paperback
ISBN 978-3-290-22047-1
CHF 38.00 - EUR 32,00
Lieferbar

Mathias Nebel

Mathias Nebel is professor of social ethics and Catholic social thought and research director of the Instituto Promotor del Bien Común at the Universidad Popular Autónoma del Estado de Puebla (UPAEP, Mexico). He was previously professor of moral theology at the Institut Catholique de Paris.

Thierry Collaud

Thierry Collaud is a medical doctor, medical ethicist and catholic theologian. He practiced medicine as a general practitioner during 20 years while being active in medical ethics continuous education. He is currently professor of Christian social ethics at the university of Fribourg, Switzerland.